Take it slow, turn the lights off
Need to know my demands
Play the game truly, my love
Use your lips, not your hands

And so you wanna know
If I feel like you do
All I know for sure
Is this night's made for two

[Chorus:]
All the way - you have fallen for me
Try to sway, but your eyes tell me so much
All the way - you would go to see me
Have to say you're addicted to my touch

Now you're asking about us
But you don't wanna know
And I don't need your diamonds
I've been fine on my own

And if you wanna know
How I feel about you
All I know for sure
Is this night's made for two

[Chorus:]
All the way - you have fallen for me
Try to sway, but your eyes tell me so much
All the way - you would go to see me
Have to say you're addicted to my touch
