Tongue tied,
I'm trynna' find words to say, something that's real
Thought I, could fit in a place like this, not what it seems

I'm a little worried
Everyone is hurrying
Missing half the things that we have done
Isn't it a cold world?
Lost a little hope but,
Hoping that it's gonna be alright

I've tried to hide in myself
But it's a lost game,
Running through a cold rain
I've tried to fight like a
Bottle in a sea wave
Thought I was insane

But it'll be alright
Know that everything is gonna be alright
cause everything around me is gonna be alright

Fake smiles
It doesn't feel real to me
Why can't you see, it's not that hard
To lose yourself in a pool full of tears

I've tried to hide in myself
But it's a lost game,
Running through a cold rain
I've tried to fight like a
Bottle in a sea wave
Thought I was insane

But it'll be alright
Know that everything is gonna be alright
cause everything around me is gonna be alright

Vision got blurry
I close my eyes
Maybe when I wake up
It will be fine

I've tried to hide in myself
But it's a lost game,
Running through a cold rain
I've tried to fight like a
Bottle in a sea wave
Thought I was insane

But it'll be alright
Know that everything is gonna be alright
cause everything around me is gonna be alright
