Tell me why you calling on me do you miss my lips and my skin
I'm getting sober in the morning take me to reality

Baby my heart is broken
'cuz you took it away
Show me how much you love me
I still want you

The story's gonna be over
And I'm losing control
I am scared to be lonely
I still want you

[Chorus:]
Tell my why you keep on calling, baby
I'm so addicted to you you you
I'm getting used to all the pain you gave me
I don't care if it hurts
I don't need your apology

Driving fast I'm on the highway, even though I said Goodbye
I'm about to take you far away girl you better hold on tight

Baby your heart is broken cuz I took it away
but show me how much you love me
I still want you

The story is gonna be over
And I'm losing control
Don't be scared to be lonely
I still want you

[Chorus:]

Tell me why you keep on calling, baby
I am so addicted to you you you
I'm getting used to all the pain you gave me
I don't care, if it hurts
I don't need your apology

Тишината каза всичко, скрито във нас.
Самотата се превърна в моя компас.
Монетата е с две страни.
Но и двете си ти.
Безплатна е любовта ми, но ти не я оцени.
Не бъркай липсата на думи с липса на любов.

I don't need ... your apology

[Chorus:]

Tell me why you keep on calling, baby
I am so addicted to you you you
I'm getting used to all the pain you gave me
I don't care, if it hurts
I don't need your apology
