You playin' with me like a yo-yo
You gettin' me high on the low-low
You stayin' with me or you go-go
Keep playin', I might goin' solo

No ring, no text
Forget about late-late, night-night calls
No gym, no flex
You ain't a dog, no bone, no fetch

All the fifty shades of fake, you got them
Only difference that you make are problems
You're bringing more drama
That's why I'm done with you
By the way baby bye bye

Bye bye
By the way baby bye bye
Bye-bye
By the way baby bye bye bye

Baby I'm chillin' - like this
Killin' - like this
Lookin' but got my neck hurtin' like ish
Living a bit
Keepin' it lit
I'm on some new vibe that you cannot reach
You came as an option - now is start to quit
You broke me I cut you
And now you need a stitch
Now you need a fix
You need of this
No you need but I need that things to switch

No ring, no text
Forget about late-late, night-night calls
No gym, no flex
You ain't a dog, no bone, no fetch

All the fifty shades of fake you got them
Only difference that you make are problems
Uh, you're bringing more drama
That's why I'm done with you
By the way baby bye bye

Bye bye
By the way baby bye bye
Bye-bye

Your emotions pourin' out
I swear you got me feelin' like I'm goin' down(x3) a river
I suggest you to reconsider
An idea
Of slowin' down, down, down
Of slowin' down, down, down
You drible
