Bleeding for your love
But you're calling me emotional
Said you loved me first
Baby you don't see a future though
Are you delusional
Tell me
Are you delusional

[Chorus:]
Why did you close the door
On me, you left
Leaving me alone
Inside my head
I got all these voices, haunting me
They come out when I'm lonely, lonely
Why did you close the door

Standing on the edge
Got a sudden rush of jumping in
Tryna clean my wounds
Cause your loving left me scarred within
Baby this love's a sin
Baby this love's a sin

The silence grows
Should have never got this close
Cause now it's getting hard to breathe
I'm losing sleep
Oh no

[Chorus:]
Why did you close the door
On me, you left
Leaving me alone
Inside my head
I got all these voices, haunting me
They come out when I'm lonely, lonely
Why did you close the door
On me, you left
Leaving me alone
Inside my head
I got all these voices, haunting me
They come out when I'm lonely, lonely
I know why you closed the door
