Baby, Im not what I used to be
Nowhere, nowhere near the other me
Broken dreams, losing my identity
Slowly, breaking every part of me

I gave up my whole life for you
Thought I knew you
In my heart I tried to find out the truth in your lies
Oh, why did I let you get your way with me?

And now I see
Youre good from far away
But youre far from good to me
Here are some better days
When youre miles away
Youre good from far away

I got to forget you
I wanna forget you
I need to forget you
Forget to forget you
Nananana ooo,nanana ooo

We are nothing like we used to be
So far, far from good you are to me
My mistake, I thought you really cared for me
I should have known
You never do the same for me

When I gave up my whole life for you
Thought I knew you
In my heart I tried to find out the truth in your lies
Oh, why did I let you get your way with me?

And now I see
Youre good from far away
But youre far from good to me
Here are some better days
When youre miles away
Youre good from far away

I got to forget you
I wanna forget you
I need to forget you
Forget to forget you
Nananana ooo,nanana ooo

I got to forget you
I wanna forget you
I need to forget you
Forget to forget you
Nananana ooo,nanana ooo

Youre good from far away
But youre far from good to me
Here are some better days
But youre far from good to me

I got to forget you
I wanna forget you
I need to forget you
Forget to forget you

I got to forget you
I need to forget you
Forget to forget you
