Please have all of me, I'm happy to be your lover and a friend, don't be scared of me, I need you around to keep me safe.
Cause when you take your love away, I lose it and my skies turn gray,
I wait and wonder why my messed up heart cries louder day by day when you're away.

Be my pleasure, my pain, take me there once again,
when I'm with you, I know you'd be my sun and my rain.
Light my love with your flame, be my pleasure, my pain.

One life, ain't enough to live through all the things I feel for you, always in my heart, I need you there to know you care.
Cause when you take your love away, I lose it and my skies turn gray,
I wait and wonder why my messed up heart cries louder day by day when you're away.
