Don't try to run away from the things you need to say,
my heart is like an open door, but you wont come in no more.

Ref.

I can't feel, what is real no more, I can't see this world, like it was before,
I can't feel, can you help my soul, I'll be always there, stranger in your world.

I'm begging you don't be this way, imagin' what was yesterday, nothing's gonna be the same, when we'll go our separate ways.
And why would try to run, why would you try to leave your only one,
try to run, why would you try to make me fall again?

Ref.

Don't try to run away from the things you need to say,
my heart is like an open door, but you wont come in no more.
And why would try to run, why would you try to leave your only one,
try to run, why would you try to make me fall again?
