You keep on saying there's nothing up, but I
Know that there will be fireworks
There'll be lightning, no silver lining
Then there's thunder

Ain't gonna take this shit no more I'm gonna
Try to find a way to stop the fighting
No more thunder

Stop the rain from pouring
Over my body, no more running
On and on and on
Going nowhere

[Chorus:]
I'm just dancing and I'm feeling
Like my heart has stopped the bleeding
And the clouds are slowly clearing
From the thunder

I never wanted to let you go
but baby
I know (aha)
I know (aha)
One day you will see (that)
that's the best for me
I know (aha)
I know (aha)

Hold off the storm coming up
I'll stay true to myself no matter what
One day you will see (that)
That's the best for me
I know (aha)
Yeah, I know (aha)

Stop the rain from pouring
Over my body, no more running
On and on and on
Going nowhere

[Chorus:]

I'm just dancing and I'm feeling
Like my heart has stopped the bleeding
And the clouds are slowly clearing
From the thunder

You had me going insane
You think the sky's your brain
Calling the shots making it hot and then it's cold again

But I ain't staying no more
I found an open door
No more tears cutting my face I'm outta this place

[Chorus:]

I'm just dancing and I'm feeling
Like my heart has stopped the bleeding
And the clouds are slowly clearing
From the thunder
