

Азис - Who Cares

Why don't you call me at the times that I'm down and small
You always poppin' when you need attention
I was your comfort when you needed a home.
Where you now? I need someone to be my baby

You say you know me, but who do you really know
You only see me as an easy distraction
But I'm the one - left in a lie
I wanna be embraced for everything I'm givin'

Stop in the middle, and see the tears in my eyes
Stop in the middle, between the truth and your lies
Stop in the middle, middle, middle
Stuck in the middle of the truth and your lies

[Chorus: x2]
Who cares, who cares
See my bleeding heart, I'm askin'
Who cares, who cares
Feel my bleeding heart, I'm askin'

Why don't you call me at the times that I'm down and small
You always poppin' when you need attention
I was your comfort when you needed a home
Where you now? I need someone to be my baby

You say you know me, but who do you really know
You only see me as an easy distraction
But I'm the one - left in a lie
I wanna be embraced for everything I'm givin'

Stop in the middle, and see the tears in my eyes
Stop in the middle, between the truth and your lies
Stop in the middle, middle, middle
Stuck in the middle of the truth and your lies

[Chorus: x2]
Who cares, who cares
See my bleeding heart, I'm askin'
Who cares, who cares
Feel my bleeding heart, I'm askin'

I've had enough,
I need some lovin' just to get me through the night,
the night
I've had enough,
I need some lovin' just to get me through the night,
the night

[Chorus: x2]

Who cares, who cares
See my bleeding heart, I'm askin'
Who cares, who cares
Feel my bleeding heart, I'm askin'
